

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, June 20. 1706.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 25.

Venice, June 11.

THIS Week Bills to a considerable Value were remitted hither from England, payable to Prince Eugene of Savoy for the Use of the Imperial Army under his Command. We have Advice from Verona, that that Army continues still at San Martino and other Posts on the Adige; that the Marquis de Langallerie and the Count de Bonneval are arriv'd at San Martino, to serve under Prince Eugene, the first as General of Horse, the other as Major General; and that the Duke of Vendome has caus'd some Troops to advance within Cannon-shot of Verona, and intrench themselves there: A Reinforcement of our Troops, and some Cannon, are hereupon put into that City, and all imaginable Precaution is us'd by the Proveditore, to prevent its being surpriz'd.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 25.

Letters from Prince Eugene's Camp at San Martino in the Veroneze, dated the 11th of this Month, advise, that his Highness had caus'd Te Deum to be sung, and a triple Discharge made of Artillery and small Arms, for the great Victory obtain'd by the Allies at Ramelies in Brabant the 23d of May; that the Princes of Saxe Gotha, Anhalt Dessau, and Wirtemberg, were arriv'd at the said Imperial Camp with the Auxiliary Troops of Saxe Gotha and others; that the Palatines were expected to arrive there in a few Days; and that P. Eugene was preparing to put his Army in motion soon after their Arrival.

Inspuch, June 15. Yesterday an Officer pass'd through this Place, being sent by Prince Eugene to the Court of Vienna: He reported, that the Imperial Army in the Veroneze is already encreas'd to 30000 Men, and that Prince Eugene will speedily attempt some important Enterprize.

From the Camp before Turin, June 12. The 8th Instant in the Morning, the Duke de la Feuillade sent into the City Brigadier Marignan with a Trumpet, to acquaint the Duke of Savoy, that the King would give Leave to the Dutchesses and their Ladies to retire whither they pleas'd; and that the Duke de la Feuillade was ready to give them necessary Passports for that Purpose, as also a Guard; but his Royal Highness return'd Answer, that he thank'd the King and Duke, but that the Dutchesses and himself were in a Place of Safety and in no Danger. Upon this Answer, we began that Night to bombard the City. The 10th in the Night, our Trenches were advanc'd within 50 Paces of the Outworks of the Citadel. Yesterday one of our Bombs fell into a Magazine of Hay near the Gate of the City that is next to the Citadel; and we still see a thick Smoke rise from thence. Our 2 parallel Lines are finish'd, and 3 Redoubts are made, by which our Right Wing is intirely cover'd: And 2 Castles are fortified for securing our Left Wing. To Day (the 12th) Brigadier Menon had a Leg shot off by a Cannon-Ball from the Place. To Morrow we shall have 4 more Batteries ready to play; 3 of 12 Twenty four Pounders, and the other of 8 Cannon and 6 Mortars, which Cannon will fire burning Bullets into the Place. The Besieged make no Salies, probably because they design to husband their Force; but they continue to make a terrible Fire with Artillery and Musqueters, so that they kill us a great many Men, notwithstanding our Trenches are made deep on purpose to cover us. We have already thrown 1000 Bombs into the Place.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 25.

Genoa, June 5. Yesterday arriv'd here from Antibes 4 French Galleys, with a certain Number of Grenadiers and Bombardeers design'd to be employ'd in the Siege of Turin. We have had no News from Catalonia by Sea, since the Account brought hither some Days ago of the raising the Siege of Barcelona and the Retreat of the Marshal de Thille towards Perpignan. Two English Ships are arriv'd at Toulon from Barcelona, with 300 French Prisoners, to exchange them for English and Dutch.

From the Harlem Courant, &c. dated June 26.

Vienna, June 12. 'Tis advis'd from Turin that the Deputies of the Hungarian Malecontent had promis'd to give in their Demands the 11th Instant. They have excus'd themselves from delaying so long to give them in, alledging they were oblig'd to wait for the Arrival of the Deputies from Transilvania, without whose Consent they could make no Proposals. This Resolution of the Hungarians to act in Confort with the Transilvanians, will create new Difficulties; for the Transilvanian Deputies pretend their full Powers for treating run in the Name of Prince Raguski, as Prince elect of Transilvania. In the mean time, the Malecontents have sufficient Warning given them by Mr. Sepney Envoy of England, to embrace this Occasion of treating cordially with the Emperor, while he is thoroughly dispos'd to give them all reasonable Terms; and he has assur'd them if they let it slip, the Emperor will put in a greater Force upon them than he has'd hitherto, in order to reduce them by arms. In fact 'tis certain the Emperor is treating with several Princes of Germany for Auxiliary Troops, to be employ'd against the Hungarians in case they will not treat on fair Conditions. The Malecontents on their part are making Levies for recruiting their Forces. We have Advice, that M. Guarient the Emperor's Envoy extraordinary to the Ottoman Court has been receiv'd at Belgrade with the usual Ceremonies, and having given the Bassa that is Governour of that place the Presents he carried for him, is gone on from thence for Constantinople.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 25.

Cologne, June 22. Some Advices from Luxembourg tell us, that the Count d'Aulre Gouverneur of that Place has refus'd to receive some French Troops that were sent to reinforce the Troops of that Nation which are there already.

London, June 20.

We hear that John Ward and Francis Eyles Esqs; are to be put in Nomination on Midsummer Day next in the Common Hall for Sheriffs of London and Middlesex, for the Year ensuing; being both Gentlemen of known Loyalty to Her Majesty and well affected to the Government both in Church and State.

We hear that William Benson and Ambrose Crawley Esqs; are to be put in Nomination on Midsummer Day next in the Common Hall for Sheriffs of London and Middlesex, for the Year ensuing; being both Gentlemen of known Loyalty to Her Majesty, and well affected to the Government both in Church and State.

Windfor, June 17. This Day the following Address from the Dissenting Ministers in and about the City of London (viz. the Presbyterians, Independants, and Baptists) was presented to the Queen by Mr. Spademan, accompanied by Twelve other Ministers; which was very graciously receiv'd by Her Majesty.

May

May it please Your Majesty,

THE late surprizing Progress of Your Majesty's Forces, and those of Your Allies in Flanders, under the Command of the most Illustrious Prince the Duke of Marlborough, and of those in Spain commanded by the Noble Earls of Peterborough and Galway, happily supported by Your Royal Navy, under the Conduct of Your Prudent and Valiant Admirals, engages us humbly to Congratulate Your Majesty on so Glorious an Occasion.

The Signal Answer it has pleas'd God to return to those Devout Prayers, which Your Majesty, and Your People, by Your Pious Direction, address'd to Heaven, inspires us with a Joy equal to the Mortification it gives Your Enemies: And while Your Majesty Ascribes Your many Victories to the Arm of the Almighty, and repeats Your Royal Commands to Your People to offer Him their Solemn Thanksgiving, we can't but look on Your Majesty's Piety as a hopeful Pledge of like future Success.

As the Important Consequences of Your Majesty's Triumphs make a daily Accession to Your Glory; So they gives us an agreeable Prospect of the speedy Reduction of the Power of France to its just Limits, the Restitution of Liberty and Peace to Europe, the effectual Relief of the Reform'd Churches abroad, and the Security of that Provision the Law has made for a Protestant Succession to the Crown of this Kingdom.

We gratefully Acknowledge the Share we have in the Blessings of Your Majesty's Auspicious Reign, which preserves to us both our Civil and Religious Liberties; and take this Occasion to Renew to Your Majesty the Assurance of our Inviolable Fidelity, to which not only our Interest and Inclination, but the Sacred Ties of Gratitude and Conscience oblige us: And we shall use our utmost Endeavours in our several Stations to Promote that Union and Moderation among Your Protestant Subjects so often recommended by Your Majesty as highly necessary to the Common Safety.

May the Divine Providence, that has made Your Majesty not only the Head of the Protestant Interest, but Chief in the Confederacy for the Glorious Cause of Common Liberty, give Your Majesty the Satisfaction of seeing both more firmly establish'd than ever, by the Influence of Your Councils and Success of Your Arms. May Your Majesty's exemplary Piety, Zeal for the Reformation of Manners, and Parental Care of all Your People, even those of the remotest Colonies, be eminently rewarded by the Great God, with the constant Prosperity of Your Government: May Your Reign be honour'd with a Happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms of Great Britain: May Your Royal Consort the Prince enjoy a Confirm'd Health: May Your Majesty continue to Rule in the Hearts of Your People, and be late advanc'd to a Throne of Glory in the Kingdom of Heaven; so pray

Your Majesty's most Loyal and most Obedient Subjects and Servants.

Reflections upon Redicule, or what it is that makes a Man Ridiculous, and the means to avoid it; wherein are represented the different Manners and Characters of Persons of the present Age; of Unpoliteness, Indignation, Affectation, Spoilish Vanity, the ad Taste, Impudence, the Morose Humour, Insuperbience, Injustice, Inconstancy, Absurdities, Caprice, False Delicacy, Decorum. Printed for Tho. Newborough at the Golden-Ball, D. Midwinter at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Tooke at the Middle Temple-Gate in Fleetstreet.

The Roman Essence, a few drops of which dropt in a Basin of warm Water, and set in the middle of a Room, takes away all ill Scents, and Perfumes it to Admiration; it prevents Wrinkles in the Face and Hands, and gives a delightful Flavour, as it doth likewise to Shifts, Handkerchiefs and Linnen. It takes away the ill Smell of Soap, and leaves a most pleasant and lasting Odour; and for preserving the Hair of the Head and Periwigs, it hath not its equal, keeping them from falling off or changing Colour, Strengthens the Hair, and keeps it in the Curl longer than any thing now in use; to be had at Mr. Scampton's at the Angel over against the Mermaid-Tavern in Cornhill, Mr. Osborn at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet street, and at Mr. Girards at the 3 Flower-de-luces near Northumberland-house in the Strand, Toy-Shops, and have not been publish'd had it not been counterfeited under the same Names of Imperial Royal, &c. At 1 s. 6 d. the Bottle, seal'd up with Directions.

Stoughton's great Cordial Elixir, (so often mention'd in the Gazette) making the best Purl in Beer or Ale, Purl Royal in Sack, and the Bitter Draught in Water, Tea or White Wine in an Instant, prepar'd only by him Apothecary at the Unicorn in Southwark, for 14 Years, being now famous throughout the Three Kingdoms and beyond Sea, for the Stomach and Blood, rectifying the former from all its Indispositions, and cleansing the latter from its Impurities; as Scurvy, &c. Is to be had at his own House and several Book-sellers and Coffee-Houses in and about London, and at some one such Place in most Cities and great Towns in England: By Mr. Blackwood at Edinburgh, Mr. Ray at Dublin, at Belfast and Galway in Ireland, at 1 s. a Bottle, Wholesale Cheaper, where it is not yet placed, any Person who first sends may have it to sell again with good Allowance, many now selling 40 or 50 Dozens a Year. 'Tis of excellent Use for those who take Bitters when they drink Tenbridge, Bath, Hemstead, Epson, or other Mineral Waters. Matthew Beilly, Captain of the Bonaventure, doth certify, That in the Year 1703. his Ship lying at Jamaica, 6 or 7 of his Men were taken with a great Stomach at the Stomach high Fever, immediately light Headed, together with a Vomiting and Loosness, and most of them died in 24 Hours: Presently after several falling ill in the same Manner, he plied them with Stoughton's great Cordial Elixir, and (with the Blessing of God) every one were speedily cured; and he is of opinion it may be of great Use to take to Sea: It was much esteem'd at Jamaica when he came away, and was sold at 1 s. 6 d. a Bottle. Sign'd Matthew Beilly. I have accounts from several Captains and Masters of Ships to the like purport, who declare they will always take it with them.
